The Spirit Of VHS

The orange and black of her school colors symbolize the spirit of Virginia High. In the orange, we see the color and pageantry of V-T week . . . the fellowship of club activities . . . the outstanding accomplishments of our students in interschool competition . . . the efforts put into athletics . . . the winning touchdown . . . an "A".

In black we see the dull humdrum of everyday life . . . the carelessness of the apathetic student . . . long hours spent studying for that important test . . . the gloom of defeat . . . the unsure future facing each senior after graduation.

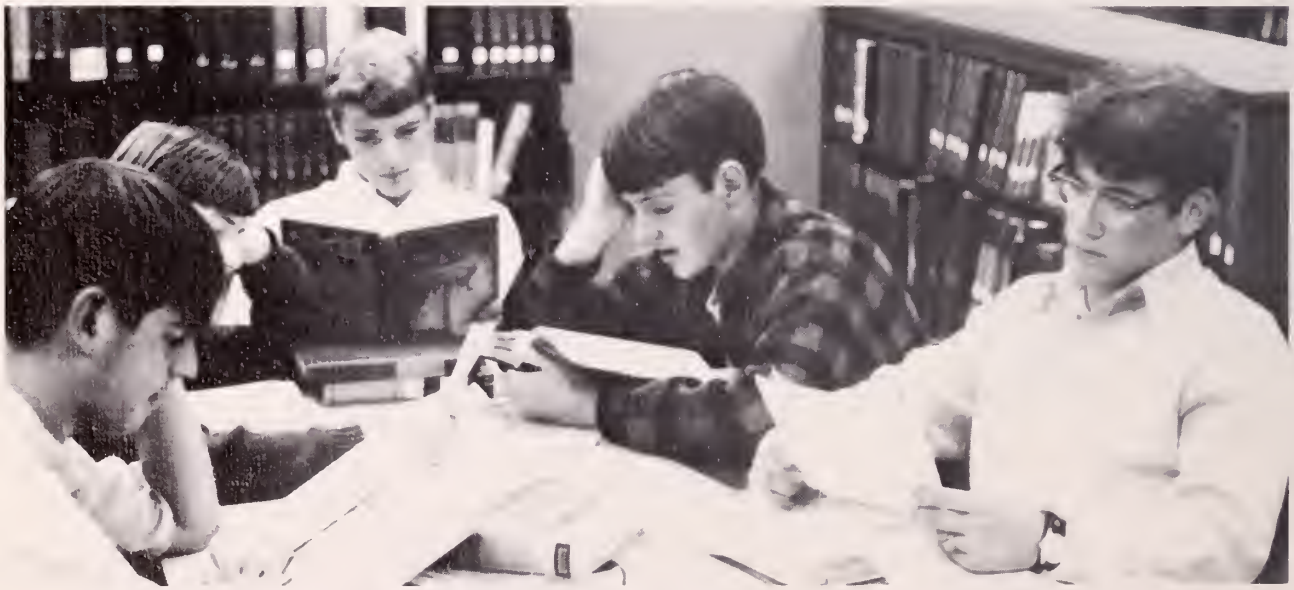
Apathy — The Lack Of Spirit

Remember . . . falling asleep in class . . . wandering aimlessly down the hall, forgetting what class is next . . . homework left undone for no special reason . . . getting caught by the teacher daydreaming — gazing into thin air. Apathy — It happens to the best of us.

The Spirit Of Tomorrow . . .

Tomorrow the spirit of graduation from Virginia High will be memories to some, the reality of the present to others, and future goals for still others. This spirit is symbolized by gold honor cords . . . hopes of each Senior to be recognized on Class Night . . . the weariness after a long day decorating for the prom . . . pilgrimages to State Street Church to practice for baccalaureate . . . the awe and reverence of the baccalaureate service itself . . . hearing the name called . . . receiving the diploma . . . tear filled eyes facing a bright, new world ahead.



The Spirit Of Today . . .

The spirit of today is the life of a student . . . ringing bells . . . scurrying feet as students rush to classes . . . puff, puff, puff, followed by announcements . . . students listening to lectures — some attentive — others asleep . . . spirited discussions arousing controversy . . . the tenseness of speaking before classmates . . . lunchtime spent studying for that important test . . . exhausting Physical Ed. classes . . . the pep rally — Two Bits, Four Bits, Six Bits a Dollar . . . "All hail to thee our dear Virginia".

The Spirit Of Another Year . . .

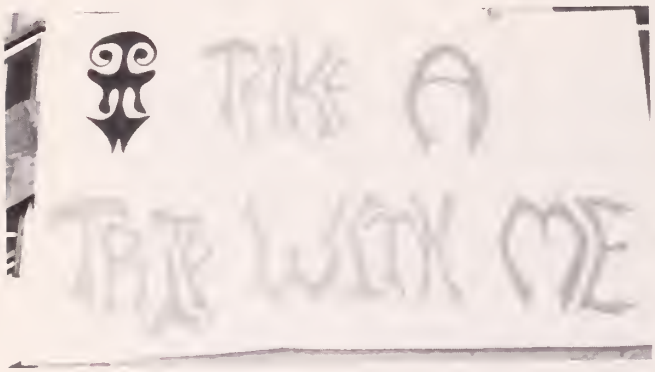
Where will we be one year from now? . . . studying harder than ever in an institute of higher learning . . . seeking a degree in a specialized field . . . packing up each weekend to visit a neighboring school . . . working in a local business . . . meeting new teachers . . . exploring unfamiliar subjects . . . striving to greet new students and old friends . . . becoming upper classmen . . . campaigning eagerly for that desired office . . . taking our place as a citizen of the nation, state, and community.

STUDENT LIFE

SALUTING
VA. HIGH SCHOOL
JR. - SENIOR PROM

Take A Trip With Me

The climax of the junior and senior year — the prom . . . that special invitation . . . long weary hours spent decorating . . . the Hawaiian scene — an assimulated island complete with palm trees, parrots and stone idols . . . the walls reverberating with "soul" . . . the flashing lights . . . dancing in spite of tired feet . . . the elating fragrance of flowers . . . soft farewells . . . another memory.



Above: Peggy Parks, Cora Stewart, and Marsha Pender "grow" a Palm Tree. Right: Karen Hayes, John Henner, and Robin Arnold work together to complete the decorations.

Athletic Banquet Features Ray Mears

Honoring Bearcat athletic stars . . . eating in the transformed VHS cafeteria . . . enjoying the entertaining speech by the UT basketball Coach Ray Mears . . . applause . . . topping the evening off with a dance . . . a fitting reward for many hours of hard work.

Seniors Honored At Class Night

Formal dress . . . receiving a coveted award . . . disappointment in a lack of achievement . . . first realization that high school life is almost over . . . turning the privileges over to a new class of seniors.

Graduation — Night Of Achievement

Wearing caps and gowns . . . listening to words of encouragement . . . ascending the platform . . . receiving a diploma . . . suddenly becoming an adult with a new exciting world to conquer . . . smiles . . . tears . . . goodbyes.

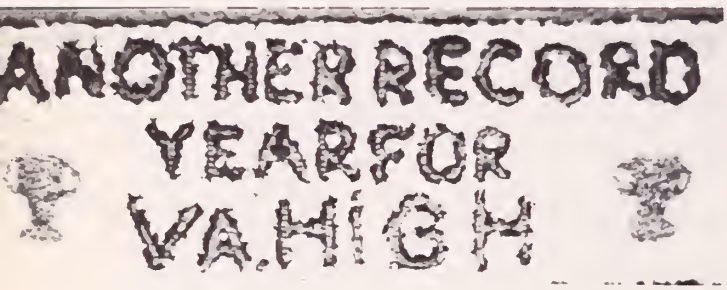
Students Enjoy VT Week

Clubs spending money and time on elaborate decorations . . . cheering in the halls . . . pep rallies . . . skits . . . "Only the strong survive" . . . the hot dog supper . . . yelling at the bonfire . . . avoiding a fall on the snake dance . . . mums . . . the highlight — the game . . . "It's crying time again" . . . the victory (?) dance . . . tears.



This is to our Bearcat team,
Which we all love so dear;
We've been so very proud of you
Throughout this football year!

This Friday night you'll look your best,
And everyone will see
You run all over THS,
One-hundred-one to three!

You've got the boys and coaches, too,
That make a winning team;
But when it comes to spirit & drive,
You're the best the world has seen!

We've had the trophy two years in a row,
And this year there's no doubt,
That you great boys will make it three
At this year's V-T Bout!

So to you boys we've cheered all fall,
Now once again we say:
"You are the best, you're gonna win,
We're with you all the way!"

The Chess Club, new to the VHS scene, has already established its firm foothold as one of the most active organizations of the 1969-70 school year. With over 20 members in its 1st year, the club strived to gain the attention and participation of the students through its activities. Intramural and local high school competition offered an unprecedented opportunity for students to work both as a team and as individuals for a common goal, a "checkmate".

Little Virginian Appears On TV

The main purpose and objective of the Newspaper Staff of VHS is to write, publish, and distribute the school newspaper, "The Little Virginian."

The staff is composed of nineteen specially selected students that provide the student body with informative and entertaining events in and around the school.

The "Little Virginian" staff has sponsored two school dances, sold Bearcat pennants, sponsored the Homecoming Queen contest, and each spring, in conjunction with the annual staff, conducts a Publications Banquet.

BIG ORANGE BAND

Before the opening of school the Virginia High School Band went to Camp Greenville in South Carolina for one week to prepare for the upcoming football season. In October, they participated in the Southeastern Band Festival in which they scored a division I rating, a second place for majorettes and a superior score for Drum Majorette Rita Sword.

The band also played in numerous parades during the year, Christmas concerts at several elementary schools, the Spring Festival, and their own Spring Concert. The year of activities was concluded when the band marched in the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington and spent a week visiting the sights at the Capital.

The 1969 Bearcat football team, although hindered by injuries and lack of experience showed great desire and willingness in the hard fought contests week after week.

To open the season the Bearcats overpowered the Trojans, 29-8, with a brilliant team effort. The next two weeks the 'Cats were handed disappointing defeats by Graham, 21-13, and Grundy, 32-0. The Bearcats then bounced back with a 21-14 win over Abingdon. The Bearcats then dropped their next two games; Marion won 14-13 and Fleming of Roanoke beat the 'Cats in the Homecoming Game 21-16. The Bearcats then bounced back to defeat Richlands 28-14, before losing to the undefeated Tazewell Bulldogs, 16-0. In ankle-deep mud, the 'Cats were turned back, 27-6, by Thomas Jefferson.

Finally, in the annual V-T Game, the Bearcats were edged 14-12, in a heartbreaker to Tennessee High.

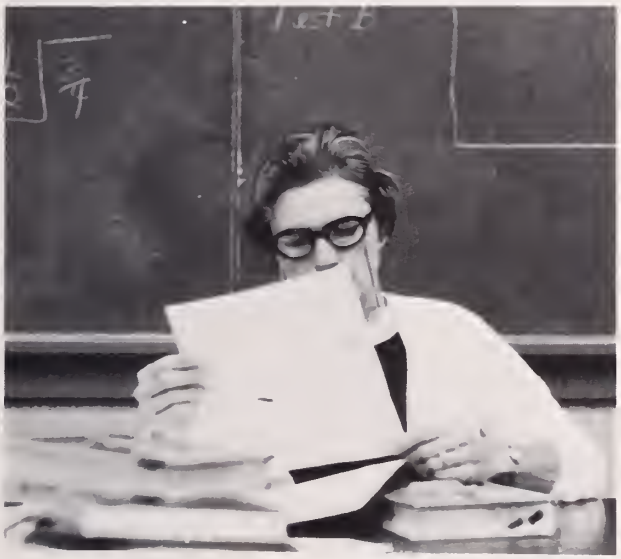
The 1969 Virginia High Baseball Team accomplished what no other team in Virginia High history has done. After an average season, the Bearcats, second in the district, traveled to Roanoke as "underdogs" in the Regional Tournament. They came to Bristol as Western Region Champs. A week later, the spirited 'Cats, under the able coaching of Larry Spangler, journeyed to Salem to face the defending State Champions, James Madison. Losing a heartbreaker, 1-0, behind the pitching of Dean Jones, the Bearcats were rated third in the State.

FACULTY
ADMINISTRATION



Dedication

Mrs. Mildred Creger

When a woman invests twenty-one years in one institution, she has invested not only years, but a major portion of her life.

This year the dedication goes to a teacher who has compiled an outstanding record of educational achievement.

She received her B.S. Degree from Mary Washington College and her M.A. Degree from East Tennessee State University and is certified to teach Business Education, History and Economics. In higher education she has taught at Virginia Intermont and Sullins Colleges and East Tennessee State University. She has served on the State of Virginia Curriculum and Course Study Committee and was chosen twice to be Virginia's representative on Southern Business Education.

During her years at Virginia High, she has been an instructor in the Business Department. Her students have been taught responsibility, accuracy, and determination in reaching goals and maintaining standards.

Her extra-curricular activities have included the sponsorship of the F.B.L.A. Club, coordinator of the Vocational Office Training Program and director of Senior Class Night Activities.

Because of her achievements and her faithful contributions to the students and administration of Virginia High School, we, the VIRGINIAN Staff of 1970, dedicate our yearbook to

Mrs. Mildred Creger

In Memoriam

On Sunday morning, November 23rd, the students and faculty of Virginia High School were grief-stricken by the death of Mr. W. C. Rasnick, assistant principal. On Monday, an emptiness was experienced as staff, faculty and students entered the building. During the memorial service, which followed, students listened in emotional silence.

Eulogy

"Let us pause in memory and honor of a faculty member for whom each of us holds the greatest esteem.

Mr. Rasnick was a man devoted to Virginia High students and their education. He was a man of varied skills and jobs. Many of us had the opportunity of seeing him at work in the classroom, selling football and basketball tickets, writing excuses, and making announcements. He may be called an educator or an administrator, but each of us knew him as a teacher, assistant principal, and as a true friend.

Mr. Rasnick was a man of inspiration and loyalty. He cared about Virginia High students and respected them. He spent his entire life in service to others and never did he ask any reward or recognition.

The halls of Virginia High School will be empty of his footsteps, the public address system will be silent of his voice, and the student body will be without his guidance.

However, what will remain is his spirit; the spirit of a man who dedicated his life in serving his students and his friends.

So today, let us give of ourselves in humble tribute to Mr. William Cecil Rasnick."

Eulogy, SCA President John Brown

Prayer, Senior Class President
Peggy Parks.

Scripture

Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection, at the last day.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

She saith unto him, Yea, Lord; I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

John 11:21-27

Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father,

Death is always a sad occasion, and the death of Mr. Rasnick particularly so because he touched so many of our lives.

We thank Thee Lord for the opportunity to know and work with this dedicated man. We thank Thee for his many efforts to develop each student to his fullest potential and always to improve Virginia High.

Please help us to live up to the high ideals he set before us as students, faculty and friends. We ask Thy blessing upon his family in their time of sorrow.

In Christ's name we pray.

Amen

William Cecil Rasnick

The Virginia High Parent-Teacher Association is an organization whose main objective is to establish a better relationship and understanding between the parents and teachers.

The Virginia High P.T.A. has enjoyed an active year this year. One of the P.T.A.'s most welcomed events was the hot dog supper preceeding the annual V-T week bonfire. Publication of a monthly newsletter was undertaken this year as a new service project. This newsletter, mailed to parents, contained information on coming meetings and guest speakers, on past meetings and activities, as well as our school's coming athletic schedule.

Johnny Carson Chooses Winner

Every year the annual features the "Miss Virginian" contest. The only qualifications for entries are that they must be senior girls. Interested persons are requested to give one of their senior pictures to a staff member. These pictures are then sent to a celebrity who is requested to select the most photogenic girl to be the winner.

Thirty-three girls entered the 1970 "Miss Virginian" contest. Judging the pictures this year was Johnny Carson, the well-known television personality. Mr. Carson is most famous as the host of NBC's 'Tonight' show. His reply read, "Mr. Carson has chosen Susan Silcox" to be "Miss Virginian" of 1970.

Mr. Carson, Star of the 'Tonight' Show.

To The Students Of VHS:

The school year is over. It ended with graduation. For the Seniors, it was their last year at Virginia High School. Graduation night was the last time they assembled as a group. Many will never see their classmates again — except for the school yearbook.

This year's Virginian is the most expensive ever and, we hope, the best. The style has been drastically changed to give it a more modern look.

It has been a hard year for the yearbook staff. Our hardest deadlines are in the winter months and, unfortunately, most of our school days are missed during these months — (VT week, Christmas vacation, exams, and especially this year's snow days). There are several staff members I would like to thank for doing an extra fine job. These people came to school running a temperature, worked as late as 2:00 o'clock at night, and stayed as late as 5:00 in the afternoon to meet their deadlines. That takes true devotion.

For Peggy and I, our job is finished. We have tried to present the student body with the best Virginian ever. Now, our Virginian becomes your Virginian.
